I spoke to Adam. He does not intend to testify at the Motion to Dismiss proceeding. Thus it is my understanding he will not be needed, nor does he plan on sitting for, a second deposition. Thanks.

I assume this is all part of the same litigation – if so I don't see why he would sit twice. But I will discuss the matter with my client and revert back. Thanks.

Counsel:

We deposed Mr. Pulaski previously in connection with the PI. If he intends to be a witness at the trial on the motions to dismiss, we intend to proceed with a deposition. Please let us know if Mr. Pulaski intends to testify at the trial on the motions to dismiss.

We will direct communications to you going forward.

Thank you.

Gentlemen:

I understand that you reached out to my client directly this past Sunday to request a second deposition.

As I stated on the record during Mr. Pulaski's deposition, please direct all such communications or requests to me. I believe I went so far as to provide my cell phone on the record during our last proceeding.

Mr. Pulaski is not going to appear a second time for deposition absent a court order. He sat for deposition once, and answered questions for the agreed upon period of time.

Thank you.
